Seminole County boasts which of the following: An upside down house, an underwater house, or an inside out house?

A: Inside Out House in Longwood was built in Boston in 1873 by Captain Pierce, then shipped and reassembled in Altamonte Springs, then moved again to Longwood in 1973. The House takes its name from its unusual exposed-stud framing on the outside and panels bolted together in shiplap fashion. An interior stairway still has the tight spiral stairs found in ships. Gift shop staff are frequently visited by the Captain and his cat Brutus, voices and footsteps are often heard and cold spots encountered. <http://www.longwoodfl.org/content/1115/151/163/default.aspx>
